For Chris

If the sky is blue, or gray

You’re there

Happy or sad

You're there

Fit or sick

You’re there

Just a phone call away

You’re there

When I want to talk, or need space and silence

You’re there

Or not

When my ideas great, or stupid

You’re there

When I am lonely

Even busy

You’re there

When I put my foot in my mouth

You’re there

When I need a visit

You’re here

Thank you for being my friend who’s always there
